

Role: Ink Delivery Systems Build Engineer on-site role at GIS

Contract: Initial 6 month temporary with projection to permanent contract for the right candidate.

Intro: Global Inkjet Systems Ltd (GIS), part of Nano Dimensions group, has a dynamic environment – which requires individuals who can adapt and respond. Global Inkjet Systems is high-tech company requiring skills and understanding in both inkjet printing and electronics.

The Ink Delivery Systems Production Department is both focussed on meeting customers' orders and supporting R&D.

GIS is a non-smoking environment, with frequent customer visits, and requires its staff to be presentable at all times.

Responsibilities

Primary:

- Undertake assembly and test of Ink System equipment including tubing, electrical cables, and various mechanical devices
- Assist in the maintenance of production facility
- Input of data into computerised records
- Goods in / Goods out

Secondary:

- Quality Control
- Electrical tests

Tertiary:

- Develop skills to advance capability within the company
- Understanding of pressure control and fluid dynamics

Expanded:

- Contribute to test and quality procedures
- Undertake new design trials / analysis

Essential skills:

- Computer literate
- Basic Electro-mechanical knowledge/interest
- Experience in practical assembly work

Desirable skills:

- Attention to detail
- Can-do attitude

- Team player
- Soldering and wiring skills
- Mechanical assembly

Role enhancement:

- Software/Firmware experience
- Electronic skills
- Understanding/Experience in inkjet
- R&D and test environments